That he was not hallucinating? That what he saw was indeed real?.not imagined? How could he convince anyone that his mind was sound after this. .for David Moss, Pulitzer Prize winning author and Professor of Inspirational Psychology at UCLA, what began as a thrilling holiday for him and his family in his native country of Israel turns into a haunting nightmare as a suicide-bomber rips apart the cafe they were at in Jerusalem, killing wife, Yolanda and daughter, Davina.and amidst the debris and dying, David sees the face of his old adversary - the terrorist bomber known as Abba Jihad.
