From street to street it led me, by many a mansion fair, It shone through dingy casements on many a garret bare, From highway on to highway, thro alley dark and cold, And where it shone the darkness was flooded all with gold. Sad hearts forgot their sorrow, rough hearts grew soft and mild, And weary little children turned in their sleep and smiled; And many a homeless wanderer uplifted patient eyes, Seeming to see a home at last beyond those starry skies. And then methought earth faded; I rose as borne on wings, Beyond the waste of ruined lives, the press of human things, Beyond the toil and shadow, above the want and woe, My old self and its darkness seemed left on earth below. And upward, onward...
