Excerpt: . . . was honoured by our Emperor with the decoration of green ribbon some years ago. He is personally a charming man, and is exceedingly artistic in his taste and very refined in his art. His son, Hanzan, also a very good potter, has brought over a few of his fathers pieces to the Japan-British Exhibition, and some of them are dUplayed in the Fine Art Palace and others in the industrial section. Out of many of Kozans pieces a few have been selected for illustration here, and I am sure they will more deli catel y carved chrys a n t h e mums and covered with a very faint cherry colourglaze. S e i f u is especially noted for his beautiful celadon glaze, and no potter in Japan can rival him in this respect. Kato Tomotaro or T o j u of Tokio has turned out many beautiful pieces of porcelain, but he is not quite as artistic in his effects as sither Kozan or Seifu. He is famous among us VASE MADE BY MIYAGAWA KOZAN OF YOKOHAMA mv-as the inventor TP of a special shade of red known as Katoko, after his family name, and on many of his pieces we see this colour produced. Yabu Meizan of Osaka, is also one of our great potters, or rather a great ceramic decorator. He is a little over sixty and does not work much at present He is a man of very gentle...
