Excerpt: . wretched apostate from, Christianity. He knew that if the church could be rilled with an ignorant ministry, religion would be exposed to general cootempt. Beside the general arguments for a learned ministry, there are those which apply peculiarly to the present pc riod. On this topic, I can throw out hints only, for the time will admit no more. There is an extensive and increasing diffusion of knowledge in the community And the knowledge of the clergy must keep pace with it. It will be impossible, otherwise, to secure general attention and respect, either to their persons, their office, or the religion they preach. The other professions are filled with able and efficient men. The community perceive and feel it. Have they not a right to expect a correspondent ability in their religious guides? If the expectation be disappointed, must not the effects be disastrous? Our Sabbath schools demand a learned and instructive ministry. Thousands of young minds arc expanding to receive the knowledge of God; are inquiring with unwonted eagerness, for the truths of religion. What an invaluable season for pouring out, without loss, the richest treasures of divine knowledge, which care and diligence may have accumulated! In this day of boasted light, the spirit of infidelity is abroad. Its pretensions, its arguments, are false and hollow--yet frequently bold, artful, and plausible. Ministers must meet it, and put it down. But to do this, they must be armed at all points. They...
