Excerpt: . history of the church. 1741 to 1800. More than a century and a half ago, a humble Jesuit left his European home and crossed the ocean to share the labors and trials of those adventurous pioneers, who had left the old world for the new, that he might keep fresh in their minds the faith of their fathers, and comfort them in their sorrows and tribulations. The little log cabin which Reverend William Wapeler, S. J.f built in the valley of Conowago, in 1741, although most humble in appearance, was, indeed, a true temple of God. Many weary pilgrims entered this chapel in the wilderness, foot-sore and sick at heart, left who comforted by the hospitality and wise counsel of this pious priest. Among these were the forefathers of some of those who now worship at St. Aloysius church at Littlestown, Pennsylvania. From that day even unto this many of their descendants have gone to that sacred spot and in that humble chapel, or its successor, have bent their knee in prayers of thanksgiving for past favors and begged the God of their fathers to bless them and their children as he had blessed those who had gone before them. For nearly fifty years from the building of that little chapel the Catholics about Littlestown went, on Sundays and holidays of obligation, to assist at the sacrifice of the Mass at this the first House of God in their midst. And when the...
