The additional challenge is then how the government is going to equitably and accurately reflect intangibles, like what makes a house a home, in an antiseptic economic analysis. And dont forget that these hard-fought local battles can just, can just get as political as they do in the great body here in Congress. Unfortunately, more times than not, the Nations Mrs. Kelos, with their modest but blissful slice of the world, lose out to big money and redevelopment issues. That is a very scary proposition for the vast majority of Americans who, like Mrs. Kelo, want to live freely in communities they know and love without fear of being removed in favor of so-called progress. That concern is even more urgent for our fellow Americans living in economically depressed areas. While Kelo might be just another step down the continuum that started with the Supreme Court of the 1890s, 1890s, I hope it is the beginning of the end for the proposition that if your private--if your private land or property is not being put to its best economic use, you are vulnerable. No American should have to relent to a private party under the guise of government and give up his home or business. I doubt if many of us would sell our homes if given twice the value. But after Kelo, the sad truth is that the use of eminent domain to take private property and give it directly to another private party is the de facto standard. At this point, it is...
